

LATEST NEWS:

Construction Well Underway at Sturgeon Falls.

Ken Connell says “We broke ground for the elevated tank in late April, and we are now currently right on schedule. The concrete pedestal, tank support slab and the interior piping of the pedestal are all complete and we anticipate construction of the tank will commence in August.”